

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I pay for my XM satellite services and should be able to get the traffic and weather services offered by XM or any other service they may chose to offer in the future. The FCC has no right to interfere with the XM services.